

Workshop programme:
Energy and environmental policies – their interdependence in European integration and in creating sustainability

Location: Building 25.1-020 klyngerum, Roskilde University, campus map & directions

Day 1: Thursday 3rd October 2019

13:00-14:00 working group leaders meeting

14:00-14:30 welcome; short introduction to the network, as well as research and publication activities

14:30-17:00 afternoon session

14.30- 15.30 economic models and sustainable transition

Discussant: Simona Davidescu

Rosa Fernandez “Green Fiscal systems and green finance role in European energy and environmental approaches towards sustainable futures” (Skype)

Gabriel Weber, Ignazio Cabras, Thomas Hoerber, Frederico Demaria “Exploring the impact of CSR and degrowth collective actions in organisations’ transition towards sustainability: lessons learnt and future directions”

15.30-17.00 sector integration in energy and climate

Discussant: Kristina Kurze

Emilia Noel Ptak “Advancing cross-sectoral policy integration on ACE (agriculture-climate-energy) in Denmark”

Javanshir Fouladvan, Amineh Ghorbani, Niek Mouter and Paulien Herder “Analysis and modelling of urban thermal commons”

Joel Kuenzer “EU environmental policy agenda: Energy and the circular economy”

17.00 train or bus to the hotel and check in

19:00 workshop dinner: Pipers Hus, Frederiksborgvej 21, Roskilde Bypark, 4000 Roskilde

Day 2: 4 October 2019

9:00-12:00 morning session: National and EU perspectives on climate and energy policies

Discussants: Helene Dyrhaug

Pedro Ponte e Sousa "A first history of environmental concerns in the foreign policy agenda of Portugal" (Skype)

Jana Gheuens "EU climate and energy policy: how myopic is it?"

Simona Davidescu "A comparative perspective on national energy-climate plans (NECP): a view from the eastern periphery"

Matús Misik, Veronika Oravcová and Veronika Pracharová "Coal is crucial for energy security until it is not: The impact of 'financial Europeanization' on Slovak coal industry"

Gabriel Weber, Laura Juliana Ardila Fontecha and Ignazio Cabras "Social movements for sustainable cities and communities – the cases of both movements German anti-coal and French anti-nuclear"

12:00-13:00 lunch

13:00-15:00 afternoon session: EU energy transition and sustainable future

Discussant: Thomas Hoerber

Kristina Kurze "Towards a 'sustainable' energy transition in southeast Europe? EU-energy community relations revisited"

Atif Maqbool Khan "Bioeconomy strategies and policies and environmental challenges for a sustainable future of EU"

Javanshir Fouladvan, Amineh Ghorbani, Niek Mouter and Paulien Herder "Making sense out of energy security"

Tomasz Braun "Integrating power of environment conscious energy: re-thinking the EU global position"

15:15-15.45 conclusions

- Summary of workshop, Prof. Thomas Hoerber
- Publication perspectives (edited volume with Routledge)